

RESUMÉ
Marilia Baker, MSW, LMFT

P.O.Box 6509
Scottsdale, AZ 85261-6509

Email: baker@mariliabaker.com
Web: www.mariliabaker.com

Marilia Baker, M.S.W. Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist by the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners (MFT-0356). American graduate degree - MSW (1980) - from Boston College Graduate School of Social Work, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts. Original degree in Social Work was granted by the Catholic University of São Paulo, Brazil, 1965.

Special Skills: Multi-lingual, multicultural therapist. Fluent in Portuguese, Spanish, and English. Excellent knowledge of French and Italian. Certificate of Simultaneous Interpreter and Translator by the Institute of Modern Languages, Washington, D.C., 1970.

Fellowship Award. Post-graduate training under the auspices of Organization of American States/Yale University/Centro Interamericano de Vivienda y Planificacion (CINVA). Certificate of Generalist, Advanced Housing and Planning for Latin America. An international, multi-disciplinary, one year intensive academic program. Bogota', Colombia, 1966.

Author: A Tribute to Elizabeth Moore Erickson. Colleague Extraordinaire, Wife, Mother and Companion. First published in Spanish (2003) by Alom Editores, Mexico. The English (2004), Portuguese (2004) and French editions (2006) describe the many professional and personal facets of Milton H. Erickson's wife of 44 years, as well as the significant people and events, which surrounded their personal and professional life, and his role as founding father of modern Clinical Hypnosis and Brief Psychotherapy.

Advanced Professional Training

Phoenix Interfaith Counseling. Two-year postgraduate training and clinical residency in Marriage and Family Therapy. Phoenix, AZ: 1991-1993. Counselor/clinician at the Organization from 1993 to 2002.

Intensive training in Developmental Approaches to Diagnosis and Treatment in Couples Therapy. Drs. Ellyn Bader & Peter Pearson: The Couples Institute, Menlo Park, CA: 1993, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, and 2004. Most recent training, March 2011.

Phoenix Interfaith Counseling. Intensive two-year postgraduate training and clinical residency in Marriage and Family Therapy. Phoenix, AZ: 1991-1993. Counselor/clinician from 1993 to 2002.

The Milton H. Erickson Foundation: Intensive Training in Ericksonian Clinical Hypnosis and Brief Psychotherapy (Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced). Phoenix, AZ: 1989-1990.

2000 to present. Institutes Editor: The Milton H. Erickson Foundation Newsletter. Responsible for the column Introducing the Institutes. The Newsletter is a professional journal dedicated to the dissemination of Ericksonian approaches to Clinical Hypnosis and Brief Psychotherapies.

1990-2011. Continued education, specialized training in Clinical Hypnosis and Brief Therapy, under the aegis of the Milton H. Erickson Foundation. Trained with Jeffrey Zeig, Brent Geary, Ernest Rossi, Michael Yapko, Stephen Gilligan, Betty Alice Erickson, Teresa Robles, Yvonne Dolan, Carol Lankton, and Carol Kershaw among others.

1990-2004: Milton H. Erickson Foundation, Supervisor of Integrative Experiences, Intensive Training Programs in Ericksonian Approaches to Hypnosis and Psychotherapy. Phoenix, Arizona.

2004 to present: Founding Board Member: Phoenix Institute of Ericksonian Therapy. An Institute licensed by The Milton H. Erickson Foundation to disseminate Ericksonian, neo-Ericksonian & Derivative Schools' approaches to Hypnosis and Psychotherapy

Founding Director and Board Member, Milton H. Erickson Institutes of Sao Paulo, Brazil (1995) and Florianópolis, Brazil (1999).

International Presenter and Trainer. Conducts workshops in the United States, Brazil, Mexico, Spain, Poland, Italy, and Austria.

Invited Faculty, International Consultant & Advisor, Centro Ericksoniano de Mexico, Mexico City. International Editorial Board, Centro Ericksoniano de Mexico, Revista Saludablemente Disfrutando, a magazine for professionals, parents, teachers, and the general public, utilizing Ericksonian approaches and worldview.

2002-2011. Invited Presenter at Brief Therapy Conferences and Invited Faculty to International Ericksonian Congresses, The Milton H. Erickson Foundation.

Advisory Board, Phoenix Friends of Carl G. Jung. Phoenix, Arizona. Educational, non-profit organization dedicated to the dissemination and teaching of the Analytical Psychology of Carl Gustav Jung and the post-Jungian, in-depth psychology of his students, as Marion Woodman, Jean Shinoda Bolen, Clarissa Pinkola Estes, James Hollis and others.

International Editorial Board, Journal Pensando Familias, Brazil. Porto Alegre, Brazil. A scientific journal of Domus Terapia, Centro de Terapia de Casal e de Familias.

Clinical Specialties: Having lived and worked on three continents, Ms. Baker provides a diversity-oriented, culturally focused, solution-focused broad range of therapeutic approaches to individuals, couples and groups.

Specialties include: Depression, Anxiety and Stress Disorders; Midlife and Older Adult Issues; Couples Therapy; Women in Transition, Relocated Families. Therapy conducted in English, Spanish and Portuguese, tailored to need.

Licensure & Certification:

Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, LMFT (current).
AZ Board of Behavioral Health Examiners, # LMFT-0356.

American Society of Clinical Hypnosis (ASCH). Accreditation of Certification in Clinical Hypnosis, # 0727 (1994-2001)

Licensed Certified Social Worker, LCSW (1980-1994).
Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Board of Registration # 0202942.